Matt Lundberg, based in London, supports the firm's relationships with a number of its key distribution partners in Europe that represent the various investment strategies of Research Affiliates. Research Affiliates is a global leader in smart beta, factor investing, and asset allocation. The firm creates investment strategies and tools based on award-winning research and delivers these solutions in partnership with some of the world's premier financial institutions. He also provides education around the firm's research and insights to the region's institutional investors and consultants.

Prior to joining Research Affiliates, Matt worked at Dimensional Fund Advisors in London. Matt worked with a variety of financial advisers, wealth managers, and institutions to drive the investment of the firm's available products in the region and engagement with their research and resources. Matt also previously spent a year in the Treasury team at Link Asset Services (formerly Capita Asset Services).

Matt has a BSc with honours in Management Sciences from Loughborough University. He has completed the Investment Management Certificate and is currently studying towards the Certificate in ESG Investing.
